THE LIQUOR CASES.

A Number Have Entered Pleas of Guilty and Others Will

MAKE A FIGHT IN THE COURT.

Messrs. Howard and Smith are Representing Many who Have Concluded to Make a Contest—A Number Have Pleaded Guilty and were Fined—Cases in the Circuit Court—A Railroad Case Occupies the Day in the Federal Court.

Yesterday in the criminal court of Ohio county, Judge Hugus on the bench, the cases of violation of the liquor selling laws, came up and as had been expected, some of the saloonists charged with selling whisky on the "short" license, will fight the indictments. These men have engaged Messrs. John A. Howard and S. G. Smith, who made a motion yesterday, for the postponement of the cases of the men they represent until Saturday, which was granted by the court. In addition to the alleged incompetency of some of the grand jurors, the attorneys will set up the claim that the cigarette law of 1895 carried with it amendments of the state liquor law by which it is not necessary to take out the "long" license. That this was an accident in the grind of legislation's wheels, is not denied by the attorneys, but nevertheless they propose to take whatever advantage of it that can be obtained.

Cases were acted upon yesterday as follows:

Frank Ayres, guilty; $10 and costs.
Bonnenberger, two indictments; guilty.
L. Becker, one; guilty.
J. Bartollis, two; guilty.
Boadwing & Schneider, eleven indictments; guilty in six; fined $10 and costs. Not guilty plea on charge of Sunday selling.
A. Dueker, one; guilty.
Driscoll & Miller, one; guilty.
Fort Henry Club, set for Saturday.
William Fette, guilty in three; not guilty on balance.
E. Hofreuter, guilty in three.
T. A. Hennegan, set for Saturday.
Thomas McLaughlin, three; guilty.
August Meyer, Jr., one; guilty.
Neill Quinn, six; guilty; others not guilty.

H. Robrecht, one; guilty.
Joseph Stanton, two; guilty.
W. H. Sherry, three; guilty.
Otto Tyson, five; guilty; five not guilty.
F. Widdel, three; guilty.
O. E. Welsgerber, three; guilty.
Joseph Welsgerber, three; guilty.
Louis Frobe, not guilty; set for September 29.
J. J. Sheekey, one; guilty; $20 and costs.
J. Steurnagle, one; guilty.
Daniel Guth, two Sunday selling; guilty; $20 and costs.
Frank Ayres, two; guilty.
J. Barum, one; guilty.
Gundling & Caronbauer, three guilty.
F. Knuth, one; guilty.
E. Klopner, one; guilty.
William Knoke, one; guilty.
G. A. Landmesser, seven; guilty.
Court adjourned until Saturday.

The following are the defendants represented by Messrs. John A. Howard and S. G. Smith, who entered a plea of not guilty on the "short" license indictment:

John Arthur, V. Leibold,
Henry Amick, J. Lohse,
James Arthur, J. Loomis,
Burkel Bros., J. Miller,

Mr. John O. Pendleton plead not guilty in the four indictments preferred against the Fort Henry Club. Mr. Shuck appeared for Thos. A. Hennegan. The docket was not called in all the cases but will be completed to-morrow.

United States Court.

The entire day was consumed yesterday in the United States court, in consideration of the case of Stewart, administrator, vs. the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. It was tried before a jury. Mr. J. Howard Hobb, of Mounts-ville, represented the plaintiff, and Messrs. Henry M. Russell, of Wheeling, and J. E. Hooten, of Mounts-ville, were counsel for the railroad. A number of witnesses were examined and the case was unfinished when court adjourned for the day. This is a damage suit, growing out of the killing of L. E. Harris, at Cameron, several months ago. Court adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock.

Circuit Court.

In Part II of the circuit court, Judge Hervey on the bench, in the case of John W. Fleishman vs. Samuel Forshey, on trial before a jury, there was a verdict for the plaintiff for $40. A motion for a new trial was taken under consideration. Anna H. Brady vs. George S. Simpson, appeal; on trial before a jury.

In Part I, Judge Pauli, in the matter of the petition of Virginia M. Warren, for the conveyance of certain real estate, there was an order directing W. P. Hubbard, trustee, to make the conveyance.

Funeral of George Spencer.

The last tribute of respect was paid yesterday to the remains of George S. Spencer, who died Wednesday morning after an illness of only a few days. The services were held in the Zane street M. E. church, of which congregation the deceased was a member and Baltimore Lodge No. 6, Knights of Pythians, attended in a body. He was an employee of Caldwell & Peterson Manufacturing company and leaves a wife and one child to mourn the loss. He was the only son of Mr. J. C. Spencer, formerly a business man of this city, but now a resident of Grafton.

Cheap Excursion to Wheeling.

The Ohio River railroad will run a special excursion from Parkersburg and all intermediate points, to Wheeling, next Sunday, September 26, on account of the Chicago Marine Band at Solbert's Garden. The round trip fare from Parkersburg, will be $1, and correspondingly cheap rates from other stations. The train returning will not leave until after the afternoon concert.

SPECIAL EXCURSION

Over the B. & O. to the Pittsburgh Exposition.
Thursdays, September 9, 16, 23 and 30, and Saturdays, September 18. Round trip $2.50, including admission to the exposition. Tickets good three days.

A MINER KILLED.

August Feller Meets a Tragic Death in a Coal Mine—Was Run Over by a Train of Coal Cars.

August Feller, a coal digger, employed in the Koonts bank, at the head of Forty-eighth street, died yesterday about noon, of the injuries he received, but a few hours before, while coming out of the bank. He was riding out just as soon as possible, more dead than alive, his pelvis being crushed. Besides additional bruises he was injured internally, and after being taken to his home, which is in near proximity to the mouth of the mine, he lingered but a few hours, the accident occurred at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. H. T. Ford rendered all the medical aid possible and made the injured man's condition as comfortable as possible, until death relieved him of his sufferings, which were painful in the extreme.

The deceased had not been feeling well, and was leaving the bank on that account. He was about forty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and three children. In view of the fact of the mine's resumption a few days ago after the strike, his demise brings additional circumstances of regret.
